

My Song Title: A Festival in Pleasantville Tonight (There's Going To Be)
Words and Music by Songwriter Christopher Scott Welch and Dan Thompson
(12:52 PM EDT, Monday, April 23, 2018)

CHORUS

There's gonna' be a festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

There's gonna' be a treasure spill
from every quill
So right

You know we've got to celebrate
The skins we're in
The who we are
And where we've been

A festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

VERSE ONE

I'm livin' 'round
Some people, well, who surely must be Sad or mad
With cell phones locked inside misery

I want to free
Their moods with a poem Floodin' in to their ears
Hear my din Outside in

PRE-CHORUS

So sweet you can't ignore it
Some someone may abhor it

We go through stages like that
Life's not pat

But here I hope you hear it
To resurrect your spirit
Of art and love and of
life

'Mid your strife
Grab your spouse
Child, pet, fife

And dig it ...

CHORUS

'Cause there's gonna' be a festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

There's gonna' be a treasure spill
from every quill
So right

You know we've got to celebrate
The skins we're in
The who we are
And where we've been

A festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

VERSE TWO

I'm seein' frowns
From people — some — who surely wear masks
During tasks
but everyone can't bleed all the time

Catch my rhyme
I don't want anybody resigned
What's your sign?
Mine is peace
Let's release

Reveal it ...

BRIDGE

Don't tell me 'bout the weather
Enjoy the now — forever
The rain
Will fall
(Snow and wind Can't get in)

So bring your inside out
The best that we're about
Let's see your inner light
So we can all burn brighter for it

PRE-CHORUS

So sweet you can't ignore it
Some someone may abhor it

We go through stages like that
Life's not pat

But here I hope you hear it
To resurrect some spirit
Of art and love and of
life
'Mid your strife
Grab your spouse
Child, pet, fife

Let me hear it!

CHORUS

'Cause there's gonna' be a festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

There's gonna' be a treasure spill
from every quill
So right

Come on now and let's celebrate
The skins we're in
The who we are
And where we've been

A festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

A festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight

You know we're gonna' raise the roof
Them fires within

The who we are
Yeah, man, and who we've been

A festival
In Pleasantville
Tonight
